About the Puerto Rican / Hispanic Chamber of Commerce of Polk County (PRHCCPC)

We are a nonprofit 501(c)(6) organization, and as such, we do not endorse any political candidates or organizations. Our Chamber proudly serves the Hispanic and Non-Hispanic small business community throughout Polk County, Florida.

The PRHCCPC is dedicated to working closely with local Puerto Rican, Hispanic, and Non-Hispanic members of the educational, cultural, and business sectors — providing them with opportunities for education, networking, marketing, and growth both within and beyond the Polk County area.

Whether you are a small business owner, a growing entrepreneur, or just beginning to build your dream, our Chamber is here to help you get connected, informed, and empowered.

Supported by a network of businesses, community organizations, and houses of worship, we are a nonpartisan organization committed to hearing and understanding all sides of the issues that affect our small business community.

The PRHCCPC is not a threat — it is a force for empowerment, dedicated to inspiring growth, entrepreneurship, and unity among Polk County's diverse residents. Together, we make things matter and happen through our guiding mantra:

"Community, Culture, and Commerce."
